Officially getting under way with the endorsement of Dr. MacQuarrie, Dean Pitman, and the Student Council, the World Student Service Fund Drive begins today with the sale of chopsticks in the halls and in the Quad, and will continue until Friday afternoon.

Chop sticks will sell for 15 cents a pair and more than one pair may be sold to a person, according to Emi Kimura, chairman of the campus drive.

Representatives of campus organizations and all students interested in acting as salesmen may help, Miss Kimura stated. Chop sticks will also be sold in meetings of the various clubs tonight and tomorrow night.

"All funds gained through the sale will go directly into the fund which is sent with the rest of the money from the United States to aid students in the Far East who are studying under impossible conditions brought about by war and famine and the terrors that follow in its wake," Miss Kimura declared.

The drive is sponsored by the International Student Service and the National Intercollegiate Christian Council. Approximately $100,000 is needed from American students for the relief of students overseas. These funds may be earmarked for any section of the Far East work. Of the funds not designated, not less than 50 per cent will be allocated to China; of the funds allocated to Europe, a part may be appropriated to meet the needs of refugee students in the United States.

Wayne Lund To Supervise Work On Pin Catalogue

With the appointment Monday night by the student council of Wayne Lund to supervise the compiling of a pin catalogue, work on this project is getting under way rapidly.

The pin catalogue is a collection of the pictures of the pins of all honor and social organizations on the campus, the date of their adoption, and the manufacturer's name. Work on the file was begun last quarter, but has not progressed this year.

The catalogue should help organizations to avoid duplication in pin design. It will assist new organizations in selecting designs, and will protect the designs of the older groups.

Full co-operation of all organizations is necessary to make the project a success. Those groups who are not sure if their pins have already been placed on file should check with Dean of Women Helen Dimmick.

Societies whose designs are not in the catalogue are requested to leave a pin in Dean Dimmick's office. A receipt will be given for the pin. Drawings are not accepted as the colors and scale are not right.

Sparta Shield

Dee Portal Urges Spartan Knights To Surrender Hidden Plaque

Dee Portal, boxing coach and adviser to the Spartan Knights, maintained yesterday that the Knights should turn over the controversial shield to members of the freshman and sophomore classes as a prize for the tug-o-war tomorrow.

"I was there at the inception of the tradition behind the shield and believe those who were instrumental in beginning it would object strenuously if it went into the hands of a private organization."

"Although I am an adviser to the Knights and a former duke, I feel that the shield should revert to the two lower classes, to be used as prize for some sort of contest, not as strenuous as the one which began the tradition, but along the lines of a tug-o-war, track meet, or even scholarship."

Spartan Knights steadfastly refused to reveal the hiding place of the shield.

"I should tell you where it is after all the panning you've been giving us," said Mert Crockett yesterday.

Flute Concerto Featured In Annual Concert

A flute concerto will be one of the features of the annual Symphony concert which will be presented on Tuesday evening, March 4, at 8:15 in Morris Dailey auditorium, according to Adolph Otterstein, head of the Music department.

This is the first time that a flute concerto has been presented by the college orchestra, Otterstein said. The group will play the Allegro aperto, Andante man non troppo, and Allegro movements of Mozart's "Concerto Number 2 in D Major."

Other numbers on the program will be Tschaiikowsky's "Symphony Number 5 in E Minor," "Afternoon of a Faun" by Debussy and "Pop! Goes the Weasel" by Caillet.

The college orchestra has doubled its woodwind and brass sections in keeping with the policy of the leading major symphony orchestras, Otterstein said. Under this policy, when the conductor wants more tone, he has enough players to produce it, and this also gives more players an opportunity to learn the instruments, he added.

The orchestra will be under the direction of Otterstein.

Poytress Speaks To Epsilon Pi Tau

Dr. William Poytress, head of the Social Science department, will be principal speaker at the meeting of Epsilon Pi Tau, national industrial arts honorary fraternity, at 7:30 this evening in the Student Union.

Subject of Dr. Poytress' talk is "National Defense." Discussion will follow the talk, according to Henry Dunning, president of the fraternity.

Included in the evening's program will be a film by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, showing the transmission of electric power from the mountains to the consumer's switch box, according to Dunning.

The session is open to the students and faculty. There is no admission charge.

AWA Presents Program At High School Today

Promoting the desirability of attendance at San Jose State college, members of the Associated Women's Activities will present a program for members of the Girls' League at Mountain View high school this afternoon.

Several women of Orchesis, under the direction of Miss Marjorie Lucas, will participate in the program with two numbers, following an introduction by Jerrie Jurras, president of AWA, concerning the activities here.

Dean Helen Dimmick will speak of the administration of San Jose State, according to Carol McDaniel, chairman of the program.

Jean Ellsworth will sing two numbers and concluding the program will be a tap dance by Mary Lou Hoffman. A tea will be held at the conclusion.

Weather Too Hot For Hogs

Here's a hot flash for the sun-worshipping C. of C. and students who might have had their spirits dampened by the "unusual" weather of late.

Some of the aristocracy of the most honorable swine family find the delicate rays of the California sun too harsh for their tender skins. To state it plainly, the Chester White breed of hogs are not raised in our golden state because they sunburn easily, it was stated during a nature study lecture yesterday morning.

Well, this ought to be some consolation to the Chamber of Commerce.

YWCA Sponsors Cake Sale Today

To raise funds to send a delegate to the convention at Santa Cruz this week-end, the college YWCA is sponsoring a cake sale in the quad from 11:30 until 1:30 today.

Jean Smullen, member of the "Y", will attend the convention as a representative of this campus chapter to hear Winifred Wygal, from the National YWCA in New York, who will speak on "Religion and Economics".

Soph-Frosh Class Rivalry Begins At Noon Tomorrow

Freshman-sophomore 'en mity' begins tomorrow at noon with the tug-o-war in the front quad, and ends with a perpetual cup awarded the winner of a series of events in the Men's Gym in the evening.

Other events include a swim meet at 6:30, water polo contest at 7 o'clock, and a basketball game at 7:30.

Buddy King and his 11-piece band will play for the dance from 8 o'clock until 10 o'clock. Sophomores will enter the gym by the San Carlos street entrance, while the freshman will use the Fourth street door.

Tickets for the mixer are on sale in the Controller's Office for 15 cents each. Only lowerclassmen will be admitted to the affair.

The cup will be awarded the class winning four out of seven points gained in competitive sports and attendance. Class officials urge the respective classes to attend since three points will be given the class with the largest attendance.

Patrons and patronesses for the mixer are Miss Alice Hansen, Miss Dorothy Manchester, and Ward Rasmus.

Afternoon Dance Planned For Friday In Women's Gym

If you have a date, but your budget's low,

The afternoon dance is the place to go.

Ten cents per person is the admission price set for Friday's event that inspired the above suggestion made by Harrett Mannina, social affairs chairman. Dancers will congregate in the Women's gymnasium from 4 to 6 p.m.

Students attending the dance will have a chance to win one of the door prizes which consist of purchase orders, theater tickets, and two dance bids to the Coconut Grove at Santa Cruz.

Five pieces of Gene Goudron's regular dance band will supply music for the dancers, and bottled coca cola will be sold for five cents.

Men Must Apply For NYA By March

All men who desire NYA work for the spring quarter should make application in the dean of men's office between now and March 8, Paul M. Pitman announced yesterday.

Students must receive a C grade in three-fourths of their subjects this quarter to be eligible. Total allotment for men is $8720 for next term. Of this, $5480 will go to state college men, and $3240 will be for junior college men.

There are approximately 260 men doing NYA work this quarter and more are expected next term, according to Mrs. Louise Ralph, secretary in the dean of men's office.

CARRUTH PACES TEAM FOR WIN OVER AZTECS

By FRANK BONANNO

Like a true Spartan leader who fights best with his back to the wall against overwhelming odds, Captain Hal "Pappy" Carruth hit a hot streak last night long enough to lead Coach Walt McPherson's varsity basketball quintet to its second win over San Diego State, 41 to 37.

FRESNO NEXT

By virtue of its double win over the league-leading Aztecs, San Jose took undisputed lead in the California Collegiate Athletic Association. All that remains in the way for Coach McPherson to register his first CCAA conference title in his first year as head coach at San Jose State is Fresno State. Both teams clash on Friday and Saturday.

Paced by Carruth, who finally found his shooting eye, San Jose went out in front on Helbush's quick field goal in the opening minute of the game, and never once did they relinquish the lead for longer than a minute.

CARRUTH, HELBUSH

The start of the game found Carruth and Helbush registering 10 points between them, while Patterson and Echle for the Aztecs decided to make it a two-man affair by ringing the hoop for seven points. At the end of 10 minutes the score stood, 10-7 in favor of San Jose.

With four minutes remaining before halftime, the presence of Dutch Boysen in the lineup gave the Spartans an added spark. Before the San Diego men had an opportunity to set themselves, Boysen had put through three field

Radio Club Meets Tonight At 7:30

The Radio club will hold its regular monthly meeting in the "shack" at 7:30.

A regular business meeting will be held with a speaker planned for the second half of the meeting, according to Ed Hazen, president of the club.

Refreshments will be served and all are invited to attend the meeting.

At the present time, the club is building a two and one-half meter sending and receiving set for experimental purposes on this wave, which is not very well developed, states Hazen.

Rifenbark Leads Chapel Program

An Episcopal service is the program scheduled for Student Chapel in room 53 from 12:30 to 12:50 today, led by the Reverend Mark Rifenbark of Trinity Episcopal church.

The Young Churchmen's choir from Trinity will sing "Te Deum" and also lead in the congregational singing.

Reverend Rifenbark's short talk will bring to students and members of the faculty a short Lenten message since today is Ash Wednesday, beginning of Lent.

One Way Of Filling Their Coffers? --

There is no hope for the United States today, if we are to believe all the arguments that are extolled by the so-called "big shots" in reference to the current lease-lend bill, which is being scrutinized by young and old, rich and poor.

We would be in a predicament if we fell for all the ballyhoo the politicians dish out to us. Either way the bill goes, whether it is passed or rejected, we will be plunged into war, according to these people. Those on both sides of the issue are using practically the same arguments, but they are making sure those arguments will further their own ends.

Propaganda has been left at our doors and in our mailboxes telling us that thus and so is the truth of the argument, and the other fellow's ideas are all haywire. They tell us to write or wire our senators and tell them how we stand (they insist, of course, that we uphold their point of view).

As far as writing our senators or representatives at this time, it seems to be a waste of time and money. Many thousand letters a day are being received by the Senate, most of them in regard to the lease-lend measure. This mail appears to be having little effect, as the officials realize most of it has been prompted by propaganda agencies.

Whichever way the senators vote on this issue, we hope they will have us, the young people of the country in mind, and not cater too much to people with the desire to make their bankrolls bulge. We trust that they will vote the way they honestly believe will keep us out of war. We haven't spent 16 years in school to be gun-fodder and we don't believe anyone else on Washington Square, or other young people throughout the nation, care about resting some place similar to Flanders Field, sans a tombstone, while some "higher-up" are filling their coffers.

COMplete economic and social disintegration of a nation always appears first in its culture, when a great source of rich drama, art, music, and literary masterpieces is curtailed by bigoted nationalism.

An organization known as the National Council of Women of the United States recognizes this fact and is endeavoring to educate Americans in this field by publishing a leaflet now on display in our library.

"These twenty books were burned by Nazi Germany for support of democracy" is the description applied to a list of works taken from a large collection of books either burned in the famous Nazi bonfire of May 10, 1933, or banned by law since then in Germany.

Not only have the volumes been banned, but all other books by the same authors are prohibited in the Reich.

And just what are these insidious editions, these "corruptors of German morality and super-patriotism"?

"Nana" by Emile Zola, one of the best-read and well-liked books of the French novelist, heads the list of banned volumes. Our own Jack London's "Call of the Wild" is added to the literary bonfire, as is Ernest Hemingway's beautifully written work, "Farewell to Arms".

"Marie Antoinette", written by the famous biographer, Stefan Zweig, is also condemned by the clean-up committee of der Fuehrer.

The women's council also publishes its own list of choices, not for the bonfire, but for the bookshelves of every good American. "These twenty books are building American democracy for us to-

Former Student Gives Inside Dope On Life Of An 'Uncle Sam Selectee'

By JERRY MATHEWS

I feel called upon to take up the cause of the 13th Engineers, in face of the disparaging remarks, Stablebird Jimmy Michael has had published in the Spartan Daily, concerning our illustrious Corps. Some people seem to grow right out from under the brims of their campaign hats, because they are issued an extra pair of boots, and are allowed the dubious pleasure of an association with horses; this accompanied with the equally dubious pleasure of residence next to the stables.

Now to look into the clean and healthy life of an Engineer (which included an occasional dunking in the river while building bridges). We are the boys who make it possible for such organizations as the Infantry and Field Artillery to sweep into battle without being unduly held up by natural or unnatural barriers. We build bridges, repair roads, map the terrain, besides blowing up bridges, forts, roads, landmarks, in short, we do everything to facilitate the movement and success of our arms and to defer and render ineffectual the efforts of the enemy.

Each week is a harder grind, more is expected of the recruit each day. During the basic training, we do not get the regular punishments which are inflicted for infractions of military regulations and for carelessness. These punishments consist chiefly of K.P. or kitchen police, which may be carried beyond the kitchen but is still referred to as K.P.—and it usually curtails the soldier's freedom during the weekend.

ment and success of our arms and to defer and render ineffectual the efforts of the enemy.

Perhaps we might be considered the most technical branch of the modern army. The 13th Engineer Battalion will be thoroughly mechanized, a regular forty-mile-an-hour unit.

Our three weeks of training, thus far, has consisted of drill, combat tactics, hand signaling in the field, nomenclature of rifles and machine guns, bridge building, bayonet practice and training, map reading, instruction on use of compass, sighting with rifles, military courtesy, articles of war, and the showing of many training films.

CONTRIBUTOR'S COLUMN

Thrust and Parry

Dear Thrust and Parry:

Lawrence Viau expressed the right attitude last week in this column when he said it was not a question of seeing whether the freshmen or sophomores are superior, but rather a question of making both classes superior.

These contests will bring before the student body the fact that these classes want to make themselves known, and it is the hope of the officers that it will promote a good feeling between the classes as well as within the classes themselves. It is a crying shame that in a school of this size there is such a lack of school spirit. This is shown in the results of the class elections, (where only something like 200 out of 1000 freshmen voted) and in the insignificant number that turn out for the noon dances. Enthusiasm in the two classes cooperatively directed can bring about more cooperation in and between the classes. A revival of class brawls cannot!

So come on, freshmen, let's all show our support for the class of "44" and our approval of the plan of our officers to compete on a sportsman like basis. I'll be seeing you in the quad tomorrow noon for that tug-o-war, and in the Men's gym that night for the dance.

Yours for a better class,

—Frank Thompson.

CONGRATULATIONS to Ernest Ralph, next year's La Tarras editor, and to Major West, Bessies director.

The yearbook editor already has the knowledge to understand the responsibilities in putting out a college yearbook. He will have the definite advantage in having more time to iron out the difficulties that confront annual editors. It is a difficult position.

With Major West lies a great responsibility to produce the students' largest show. A production for the students by the students. It too is a task to round out a presentation that meets with the approval of some 4000 students.

This year's director will have the advantage of having a script already selected, supposedly the best obtainable at the time.

There should be no doubt of Director West's authority in presenting this performance. He should have the whole say as to what is to be done, and how it will be done.

It might be advisable, however, to have script writers and stage technicians in some capacity so as to offer suggestions and advice in case there is some need in making changes.

With the appointment of these two positions, the council has chosen the men they thought could do the job the best. They are positions well worth holding. They are important to campus life.

SPARTAN NINE LOSES OPENING GAME TO REDSKINS, 5-2

Stanford's Indians ruined the baseball debut of Walt McPherson's Spartan nine yesterday afternoon when they won a 5-2 verdict in nine innings. Though they won, the victory may prove a costly one to the Redskins as their first string catcher, Hanlon, injured his ankle in the eighth inning and will probably be lost for the conference opener in a week.

San Jose's two hurlers, Pete Filice and Tony Nasimento, scattered eleven blows between them, but the Indians managed to make them count for runs. The best of the Spartans could do off of the combined efforts of Russ Smith and Claude Purkitt was eight bingles.

In the four innings that Filice pitched he gave up four runs and five hits, striking out two. Nasimento held the Indian sluggers in check until the eighth when they exploded to garner four hits but could only produce one run.

Nasimento was also the Spartan batting hero, punching out two singles in two trips to the plate. Stanford opened the scoring by pushing over a tally in the first inning on Peyl's double and Hammet's single. They also tallied in the third inning on a walk by Smith, and three singles by Cregg, Hammet and Hanlon.

The Spartans managed to break the ice in the opening half of the fourth when Lou Ales drew a free pass and advanced to second on an error by Peyl, Indian shortstop, and then came home on Jack Fancher's drive into centerfield for a hit.

Filice retired in favor of Nasimento at the start of the fifth and the veteran Nasimento showed his cunning by nipping two runners off of base in the succeeding innings.

Clem Diviltisen's drive that went for an infield hit opened the last of the eighth for Stanford. Peyl singled for his second hit of the day and Hammet flew out to Frizzi but Hanlon punched a single to left. Caruso singled into center and Hanlon went to second with Peyl scoring. Hanlon overran the base and trying to get back turned his ankle. Booke flew out to end the inning.

State pushed over a tally in the ninth on hits by Billy Duran, Tony Nasimento and Ben Frizzi. In the two innings that Purkitt worked he fanned four. Smith gave up one run and four hits in seven innings on the mound.

SAN JOSE TAKES CCAA LEAD FROM SAN DIEGO

goals, which were enough to send San Jose off the court at halftime with a 24 to 19 lead.

EARLY START

San Jose failed to warm up to things at the start of the second half and before the Spartan defense could function, John Sellwood, playing in place of Ehle, sent through six points, putting San Jose out in front for the only time in the second game, 27 to 26.

With Carruth and Siebert doing the firing, San Jose finally managed to pull ahead. Carruth hit for five points and Siebert four. Aided by Helbush, who garnered eight points during the night, and John Allen playing a brilliant defensive game, San Jose went on to win.

In last minute desperation, San Diego, with Hale and Allison shooting from all angles, moved within four points of the Spartans only to be nosed out by the gun.

Scoring honors went to Carruth with 14 points for his night's work, while Helbush hit the hoop for eight. Little Bill Patterson at forward, took top honors for San Diego with 8 points.

Wenberg Drops Out Of School

Ed Wenberg, co-captain of the 1941 football team, was the third Spartan who has announced intentions of dropping out of school at the end of the quarter.

Wenberg will join the Palo Alto police force at the close of the quarter, it was revealed.

Two other varsity gridders who will be lost to the team this season are Bud Nygren and George Wagner.

Tennis Notice

All men out for tennis are asked to report to the health office for physical examination. No one will be allowed to compete unless okayed by the health department. Following are the times available. February 27, Thursday, 1:30-3:15; February 28, Friday, 1:15-1:45.

Eugene Grattan Memorial Meet Being Planned

Spartan wrestlers will compete in a Eugene Grattan memorial tournament sponsored by the San Jose YMCA and the Kiwanis club in honor of the memory of the late San Jose State college wrestling coach who was killed last year in an automobile crash.

The tournament will be an annual affair covering the Santa Clara county and the date has been set for May 1 and 2. The matches will be open for any grappler in the county to enter.

Championships will be awarded in three divisions, junior high school, high school, and open. The Spartans will compete in the open division with teams from Santa Clara, Stanford, Moffett Field, and YMCA. Matches will be held at the San Jose YMCA gymnasium.

Grattan was the leader in developing wrestling in this area and was also prominent in youth activities at the "Y." At San Jose State he was a "dollar-a-year man."

FROSH CAGERS CRUSH MENLO IN FINAL GAME

Coach Frank Carroll's frosh basketball squad closed its official season last evening in Spartan pavilion with a crushing 40-18 victory over Menlo J.C. Earlier in the season the Carrolls were defeated by the same Menlo outfit by a one-point margin of 36-35.

Last night's frosh quintet, paced by Paul Borg who managed to tally 14 points in the victory, had the game in complete control at all times. The half time score favored the Spartababes by a 21-6 margin.

Borg, who garnered 12 points during the course of the second half's play, was followed in individual scoring honors by Menlo's Howard Dallmar, elongated center, who accounted for 10 of his team's points. Charlie Townsend and Dave Bishop both followed Dallmar with eight digits apiece.

The starting quintet, composed of Bishop, Borg, Staley, Townsend and Watts, jumped into a quick lead and held it all the way.

Coach Carroll stated that if the varsity meets the Olympic club five in the near future, then his frosh squad will probably play the preliminary tussle.

Of the five members who started last night's battle, only one of them was first string at the start of the season, Dave Bishop, and he started last night at guard whereas at the beginning of the season he played forward.

Track Notice

According to Coach Glenn "Tiny" Tartrant, all varsity and freshman tracksters must be approved by the health office this

SPARTAN PROSPECTS FOR FAR WESTERN TOURNEY WEAKENED BY INJURIES

Four Varsity Men Doubtful Entries

Spartan hopes of winning their first Far Western wrestling championship since 1937 Friday and Saturday at Oakland, received a crushing blow yesterday with the announcement that Captain Mel Bruno will not compete any more this season due to his new job at Chino State Prison.

Bruno is the only wrestler to ever win four consecutive Far Western championships and his withdrawal leaves San Jose without a defending champion. Last year Bruno and Captain Fortune Masdeo won individual championships but Masdeo failed to return to school for his last year of competition.

Bruno's loss will further weaken the squad already riddled by injuries. Davey Hines and Yosh Uchida at 155 and 127 pounds respectively are also doubtful competitors. Hines has been out with a shoulder pointer, while Uchida cut his eye in a workout last week.

LACY OUT

Con Lacy, Pacific Coast Intercollegiate champion at 121 pounds will also be out of the meet. Lacy may be forced to give up wrestling due to outside work.

The Spartan freshmen will enter a separate team and may finish ahead of the weakened varsity in team standings. "Happy" Harata, Glen Mangus, Bill Hoover, Don Carmen, and Otto Kuhl have all been undefeated in intercollegiate competition this year and are expected to do well for the freshmen.

The first string varsity entrants are as follows:

Carl Kuhl, heavyweight, Bob Riddle, 175 pounds, Vic Gorin, 155, Dave Kawamota, 145, Ivan Olsen 135, and Bob Norona 128 pounds.

FROSH PADDLERS IN TRIANGULAR MEET TOMORROW

San Jose State's freshman swimming team will play host to San Jose and Monterey high schools in a triangular meet tomorrow night in the local pool. Starting time is set for 7:30.

In their first meet of the season the Spartlets trimmed the Bulldogs from the local high by a wide margin, but have yet to face the Monterey mermen in actual competition.

Pat McConnell, Bulldog spring board artist, will again be out to capture the diving honors that he took in the previous meet. Strongest competitive efforts will come from Harry Brownell, a newcomer to San Jose State, who in his first meet of college competition walked off with a first place against Stanford.

On Friday night in the Hayward plunge, Coach Charlie Walker will enter eight men in the PAA meet. Marty Taylor, Dean Foster, and Martin Wempe will be entered in the 300 yard medley relay. In the 400 yard free style relay Walker will enter Joe Weitzberg, Bill Iliff, Don Thomsen, and Foster Dockstad. In the 500 meter individual swim Claude Horan will wear the Spartan colors.

Simple Courtesy

San Jose State's student body has always been highly praised for its sportsmanlike attitude and consideration for the visiting opponents during athletic contests on the Spartans home grounds.

Finding fault with the conduct of any large organization the size of ours is not very difficult. When an entire student body of nearly 4000 students are blamed for the unsportsmanlike activities of a few individuals, it is not surprising that the institution itself suffers.

It is rarely possible to pick out the few irresponsible individuals in each case, for it would create bad feelings and embarrassment; but rather the entire organization is made to feel the effects of the minority.

To say that San Jose State students conducted themselves like ladies and gentlemen during the first game of the San Diego-San Jose basketball game Monday night would be a gross exaggeration on our part, for the conduct was anything BUT sportsmanlike.

Time after time when a San Diego man stepped to the free throw line, San Jose students started a series of catcalls and yelling that constantly distracted the man trying to make the extra point.

In the heat of a hectic battle of this sort students do become over-excited and in their humble way to urge their team on to victory forget the principle ideas of sportsmanlike courtesies.

The reputation established at San Jose has been one where little reflection could be cast. A reputation that has been recognized for losing a game rather than using unsportsmanlike methods to win contests.

Public opinion plays a vital part in the every day affairs of a college institution the likes of ours, and when public opinion is forced to judge the entire student body for the actions committed by a few individuals, it is time the few irresponsible individuals were made to realize the facts.

Our team is judged by the actions of the student body. Many of us would profit if we were to follow the simple courtesies that the men observe on the floor.

When playing away from home the action of the team reflects our institution and student body, and so far no Spartan team has failed to receive the highest respects for their conduct. It's up to the student body to see that the teams are extended the same courtesies.
